“WOO-HOO!” THE SIMPSONS “SPRING”FIELD INTO THE FAIR™

Meet The Simpson family on Monday, March 29 at The Fair

MIAMI, FL – For the first time, fairgoers and Simpsons fanatics alike will have the opportunity to participate in a special meet and greet with The Simpson family on Monday, March 29, 2010 from 1:00 – 5:00 p.m at The Fair’s Main Stage. America’s favorite animated family, who just celebrated their 20-year anniversary, will help greet its guests as The Fair celebrates its 59th year.

“The Simpsons is a modern cult classic with worldwide appeal,” commented Phillip Clark, CEO of The Miami-Dade County Fair. “We are happy to bring the fun and joy of its characters to thousands of fairgoers in such a unique way.” Also on the main stage, long-time Fair volunteer, Lisa Lashbrook will be receiving a special recognition from the mayor’s office for her contributions spanning a decade.

As the longest running animated and comedy series in television history, The Simpsons has aired more than 400 episodes to date. Currently in its 21st season, the critically acclaimed show features Homer, Marge, Bart, Lisa and Maggie Simpson, who take traditional family life and turn it upside down.

The 2010 Miami-Dade County Fair will be celebrating its 59th year beginning March 25th through April 11th, 2010. Ranked the largest fair in Florida, The Fair is an 18-day event which includes rides, games, food and live entertainment. Close to 50,000 student and adult exhibits are showcased during The Fair. General admission to The Fair is $9 for adults and children, free for children five years of age and younger. The Fair is located at Coral Way (SW 24th Street) and 112th Avenue in Southwest Miami. Open at noon, during Spring Break March 29 – April 2 and on all Saturdays and Sundays throughout The Fair. Open 3 p.m. on all other weekdays. For more information, call (305) 223-7060 or visit www.fairexpo.com. Become a fan on facebook.
